With a business credo of 'Good is not enough when Better is possible' we set build a world-class company with 'teamwork' as our underlying ethos.

We recruited management with specialist knowledge and skills who we knew would create a competitive advantage and provide customer satisfaction. Together we established high levels of production efficiency, technical controls and quality protocols. Our staff is committed to the success of our venture and we discharge our environmental and community responsibilities thoroughly.

As a customer of Packit Industrial Packaging you do not have to demand competitive cost, quality, reliability and service - you have a right to them and you can expect to receive them from our first day of trading.
